

WASHINGTON POST
18 December 1985ARTICLE APPEARED
ON PAGE B-7

OBITUARIES

Burt Henry Betters Jr.,

71, a retired photo analyst with the Central Intelligence Agency, died of pneumonia Dec. 14 at Shenandoah County Memorial Hospital in Woodstock, Va.

Mr. Betters retired from the CIA in 1972 after 20 years of service.

A native of Morris, Minn., he was a graduate of the University of Minnesota, and in 1938 he began a teaching career as head of the science department at Crosby-Ironton College, part of the University of Minnesota system.

He served in the Army in North Africa and Europe during World War II, then returned to teaching before moving to the Washington area around 1950.

A resident of Burke, he had been in a nursing home in Woodstock, Va., recently.

Survivors include his wife, Edna B. Betters of Burke; two daughters, Paula Davis of Detroit and Barbara Boore of Burke; a son, Brian Betters of Merritt Island, Fla.; a sister, Rozella Watzke of Elk River, Minn., and four grandchildren.